4th PIER Workshop on
Quantitative Tools for Macroeconomic Policy Analysis
University of Pennsylvania, April 30-May 4, 2018

A unique workshop providing essential training on state-of-the-art tools for analyzing macroeconomic policy from the world’s leading experts at the University of Pennsylvania.

Three course units, each with six hours of lectures plus three hours of lab work:

1. Nonlinear Models of Financial Crises & Macroprudential Regulation
2. Recent Advances in Econometric Analysis of DSGE Models
3. Financial & Macroeconomic Monitoring, Forecasting & Interconnectedness

Plus a half-day workshop on public debt sustainability analysis.

Faculty:
- Francis X. Diebold
- Jesús Fernández-Villaverde
- Enrique G. Mendoza

Guest speakers:
- Alan S. Blinder
- Guillermo A. Calvo

Penn Faculty lecture:
- José Víctor Ríos-Rull

Contact Information
Sandy Venne
(svenne@sas.upenn.edu)
University of Pennsylvania
3718 Locust Walk
Philadelphia, PA 19104
Phone: 215-898-9992

http://economics.sas.upenn.edu/pier/tools-workshop